

Gray • Hong • Nojima & Associates, Inc.
CONSULTING ENGINEERS

Gavin Y. Masaki, PE, LEED AP, Project Engineer

Education

MS, Civil Engineering, University of Hawaii at Manoa, 2004
BS, Civil Engineering, University of Hawaii at Manoa, 2000

Professional Registration

Civil Engineer - State of Hawaii, 2007
LEED Accredited Professional, 2009

Professional Experience

Gray, Hong, Nojima & Associates, Inc., Honolulu, HI
Project Engineer

Mr. Masaki has been with Gray, Hong, Nojima & Associates, Inc. (GHN) since 2004. He is involved with the preparation of construction plans, specifications, and cost estimates for civil site projects including subdivisions, cluster housing, planned development housing and infrastructure improvement project in both the public and private sector. His specific duties include grading; design of roadway, drainage, water, and wastewater systems; cost estimating; and preparation of engineering studies and investigations. Mr. Masaki is also responsible for coordination with project architects, surveyors, landscape architects, as well as other engineering disciplines.

Major GHN Projects:

- P-852 3rd Radio Battalion Complex, Marine Corps Base Hawaii
- Makakilo C&D - Phases 1 & 2
- Maunaloa Elementary School Bldg. B, Repair Sidewalk & Install Ramp
- Molokai High School Drainage Improvements
- Ocean Pointe - Areas III & IV
- Waialae Avenue Drainage Improvements
- Halawa Stream Maintenance Dredging

Past Employment:

University of Hawaii, College of Engineering, Honolulu, Hawaii, 2000-2004
Research Assistant

KAI Hawaii, Inc., Honolulu, Hawaii, 2000-2001
Civil Engineer

State Dept. of Accounting and General Services, Public Works Division, Honolulu, Hawaii, 1999-2000
Inspection Branch, Student Intern

State Dept. of Transportation, Highways Division, Honolulu, Hawaii, 1998
Student Helper 2

Professional Affiliations

- American Society of Civil Engineers, Hawaii Section
- Chi Epsilon Alumni Association