

John Garretson

Project Consultant

John joined D.L. Adams in 2014 as a Staff Consultant with a focus on acoustics. His work includes architectural acoustics, environmental acoustics, acoustical testing, and noise control for projects such as educational facilities, office buildings, condominiums, hotels, resorts, apartments, healthcare, transportation noise, and industrial facilities. Prior to D.L. Adams, John worked for a noise control equipment manufacturer and was responsible for product research and development as well as analysis and recommendations for indoor and outdoor acoustical environments.

He is experienced in sound isolation, mechanical equipment noise modeling and abatement, acoustical testing, as well as architectural acoustics and environmental noise modeling, measurement, and design. He has experience with modeling software such as CadnaA, TNM, TAP, AIM, and EASE, as well as various acoustical measurement programs.
