

EXHIBIT "25"

Daryl W. Kaneshiro
4135A Noho Road
Koloa, Hawaii 96756
(808) 651-6906
omeo@ranchlands@gmail.com

Business Owner, Omeo Ranch Lands, Omeo Farms.

Third generation farmer/rancher. Owns and operates over 150 acres previously in sugar with over 600 sheep and grass-fed cattle. Added to the livestock activity is a commercial size aquaponics farm and a 300 kilowatt solar farm. In addition contracts with two 12 megawatt solar farms for ground maintenance by sheep grazing and conventional maintenance methods.

Owner/Developer of Omeo Ranch Lands, a 325-acre agriculture development with over 12 CPR lots on the south side of Kauai, ranging in sizes from 5 acres to 25 acres, used for farm dwellings and agriculture activities.

Recently awarded in 2012 the West Kauai Soil and Water Conservation District Cooperator of the Year.

Board Member and Chair, Kauai Board of Water Supply 2010 - 2012

Kauai County Council Member: 10 1/2 years (5 terms, 1 appointment) 1998 - 2010

Council Committee Chairs:

Planning
Economic Development
Community Assistance
Finance & Intergovernmental

Board of Director, National Association of Counties
Vice Chair, Agriculture & Rural Affairs Committee
Board Member, NACO's Western Interstate Region

Account Executive, Kauai Petroleum Co., Kauai 1992 - 2010

Co-Owner, Koloa Town Activity Center, Kauai 1992 - 2008

Realtor Associate Harrington's Paradise Properties, Kauai 1987 - 1993

Director, Kauai Economic Development 1985 - 1987

Reserve Deputy Sheriff, State of Hawaii 1983 - 1989

Executive Assistant to Kauai Mayor Tony T. Kohnmura 1982 - 1985

EXHIBIT "25"

Owner Expressions, Inc. Clothing Store, Kauai 1973 - 1982

Sales and Marketing Kauai Publishing Co. , Kauai 1971 - 1975

Supporter , 4-H livestock youth program and the Keiki High School Rodeo Association
Volunteer, American Cancer Society Hoedown for Hope

University of Hawaii, 1968 - 1970

Orange Coast College, California, 1966 - 1968

Kauai High School, 1962 - 1966

Koloa School, 1954 - 1962