Mr. Hakoda,

Thank you for your message; we appreciated being added to the circulation for these notices. I would also like to let you know that we will also have counsel representing the Cooper Trust (Southwest 7) at the A05-755 Hearing, Mr. Randall Sakumoto of McCorrison Miller Mukai MacKinnon. Mr. Sakumoto and his colleague Scott MacKinnon are assisting us with this project and process. (The contact information for them is below.) You already know that Murray Smith or Chris Brown will also be attending the hearing as well on our behalf.

Please let us know if there is any further information that you would like, or anything else that we should do, in advance of the Hearing.

Best regards,

Ted

Aloha,

The LUC received and responded to this recent email and noticed that you and the Southwest 7 LLC- JLP and Associates were not included in the address. Per your earlier request to keep you apprised of the situation, here is the acknowledgement that Mr. Brown will be representing the interests of Cooper Trust (and Southwest 7) at the upcoming meeting to address the order to show cause hearing on the A05-755 Hale Mua matter.

Thank you Mr. Smith;

I appreciate your response. Mr. Brown should be prepared to answer questions on the status of they project and to state what the Trust's position is with regard to the Motion.

Do you think he will have to make any presentation? Is there any special preparations that he should make? I will be on the mainland, but I can arrange to be present if you think it is necessary.
