HEARING

A79-452 - IRVING A. JENKINS ET AL

Chairman Duke announced that the meeting on Docket A79-452, Irving A. Jenkins and May C. Jenkins, was being held pursuant to a notice published on June 8, 1979 in the Honolulu Advertiser and the Garden Island.

Appearances

Clinton Shiraishi, Attorney representing the petitioners

Michael Belles, County Attorney's Office, representing the Kauai Planning Department

Annette Chock, Deputy Attorney General, representing DPED

Postponement of Hearing

Mr. Shiraishi stated that he had received a call from Mr. Jenkins, presently residing in Florida, advising Mr. Shiraishi that he will be unable to attend today's scheduled hearing due to his wife's recent surgery. There being no objections from the other parties, Chairman Duke announced that the hearing on Docket A79-452, Irving A. Jenkins and Mary C. Jenkins will be continued to a future date which will be duly publicized by the Commission.

Both DPED and the County submitted their prepared testimonies for distribution to the Commission members and parties.

The hearing recessed at 9:53 a.m.
