

Curriculum Vitae

JEFFREY P. DACK, AICP

Planner V, Current Planning Division
Maui County Department of Planning

(808) 270-6275
jeffrey.dack@co.maui.hi.us

SUMMARY OF EXPERIENCE

- County of Maui Planner V since September, 2005
- Professional planner with 26 years of supervisory responsibilities, 19 as a director
- Led 13 years of planning programs for a community's major reuse of former military base, from initial closure announcement to adoption of local plans and base redevelopment

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

- Certificate in Land Use and Development Planning, 1985, University of California at Irvine Extension
- Master of Arts in Urban Planning, 1978, University of California at Los Angeles
- Bachelor of Arts in Urban Studies, 1975, University of California at Berkeley

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

County of Maui, Hawaii, Planner V, September 2005-present

- Member of the Planning Department's Current Division team
- Processed a variety of permits and related actions, including Special Management Area Assessments and Permits, Shoreline Setback analyses and approvals, Land Use Commission Special Use Permits, Conditional Permits, and amendments to State Land Use District, Community Plan and Zoning maps
- Coordinated logistics of a management audit of the Planning Department

City of Marina, California, Planning Director, 1986-August, 2005

- Managed department processing over 1000 planning applications during my tenure,
- Managed all personnel within the planning department, improved workflow efficiency and effectiveness, administered budgets and contracts, wrote and presented numerous reports, supported other members of the management team, conducted research and analysis of major development projects, managed environmental reviews, wrote ordinances and portions of plan documents
- Supervised up to 8 staff, including code enforcement, planning and project management for major projects totaling around 1,800 jobs, one million square feet of commercial and business park space, 3,000 housing units including 30% affordable, all leading to over $1.9 billion in added valuation at build out
- Completed major General Plan update and other plans involving substantial collection, compilation, and analysis of data, as well as policy development
- Improved image of community and City's fiscal standing through facilitation of projects such as a new ocean front resort
- Conducted resource conservation, habitat, coastal planning and enhancement
- Reconciled major economic development, planning, and environmental needs

City of Lomita, California, Housing and Community Development Coordinator,
Associate Planner, then Deputy Planning Director, 1978-1986

- Directly processed dozens of planning applications
- Project manager for development of 150 units of senior citizen housing
- Assisted over 300 low income homeowners with home repairs and rehabilitation through funding loans and direct repair assistance

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS AND AWARDS

- Member, American Institute of Certified Planners
- Named Citizen of the Year by Lomita Chamber of Commerce, 1982